

Jobseekers sharing business ideas

Dublin: Jobseekers and business figures have joined forces at the Institute of Technology, Tallaght, for Ireland's first "speed storming" event hosted by the Springboard funded Enterprise Evolution Programme .

More than 50 job seekers attended the event to share business ideas while gathering feedback from experienced entrepreneurs and business leaders. Speed storming involves brainstorming business ideas with a series of people in a speed networking format.